Get a Free State ID for Voting

Ohioans 17 and older are eligible for a free state ID if they don't have a valid driver's license. Those who are 16 years and younger still have to pay BMV fees.

How do I get one?

Pay a visit to your local BMV. The documents you need depend on whether you want a standard ID or one that's federally compliant, known as a Real ID. For a standard ID, bring documents that show your:

- Full legal name
- Date of birth
- Legal presence in U.S.
- Social Security number
- Ohio street address
- Proof of name change (if applicable)
